The Minnesota 4-H Adult Volunteer Association (M4-HAVA) is a state-wide group of 4-H adult volunteers, 4-H alumni, and other people interested in promoting youth development.

Why become a M4-HAVA member?

- To stay in touch with 4-H trends and news.
- To meet people with similar interests.
- To experience leadership opportunities.
- To be challenged with new ideas and expand your vision.
- To develop your skills and expertise in working with 4-H youth.
- To be rewarded and recognized for your leadership.

What is the purpose of M4-HAVA?

To support, promote, and strengthen volunteers to increase their skills and abilities in working with and for the benefit of the 4-H member.

What can M4-HAVA do for you?

- Help expand your leadership skills and 4-H knowledge through experiences beyond the local club and county levels.
- Provide training opportunities such as the M4-HAVA Forum held annually. (special member rate)
- Provide greater awareness of the 4-H program.
- You can contribute articles and photos to the “MINNESOTA VOLUNTEER” newsletter.
- Keep you updated on 4-H activities and opportunities.
- A place to exchange ideas and experiences.
- Provide tools and resources to teach other leadership skill

When did M4-HAVA begin?

In 1984, a committee of Minnesota adult 4-H volunteers was formed to put together a state organization. In 1986, the first annual Minnesota 4-H Adult Volunteer Association Forum was held and M4-HAVA was formally “born.”

What else does M4-HAVA do?

M4-HAVA sponsors awards for: Adult Volunteers, Clubs, and Counties in each of four M4-HAVA districts.
